

Protecting human rights in the supply chain - U procurement practitioners

Name of Resource	Protecting human rights in the supply chain - U procurement practitioners
Type	Guidance on policy / legislation implementation
Country / jurisdiction	United Kingdom
Organization	London Universities Purchasing Consortium, University of Greenwich, Chartered Institute of Procurement and Supply
Date of publishing	24 May 2017
Description	The guide was developed for practitioners in the public sector on protecting human rights in supply chains and offers encouragement for buyers, decision-makers and opinion-formers to identify and understand the risks, develop appropriate mitigating actions and promote respect for human rights in supply chains. Sections of the guide set out what the problems are faced by the public sector, why the issue is so important, and how good practice can help minimize the risks.
